

English Ministry Lead Pastor

About the Company

The Austral-Asian Christian Church (AACC) is a fast-growing evangelical church located in the heart of Adelaide. As one of Adelaide's first Chinese migrant churches of 45 years, AACC continues to grow and change as society continues to become more multi-cultural.

The staff and volunteers at AACC are passionate to see future generations live and thrive in their contexts.

About the Role

Due to a fast-growing English congregation, an exciting new role has been created for an experienced pastor to join our team and lead the English ministry into healthy and vibrant living. The English Ministry Lead Pastor will build a diverse community that celebrates its context, stories, and experiences. They will also create a place of worship for the present and future generations.
